

LOAN RANGER

Mid Sussex District Council has accessed a major database of grants and loans available to businesses. A wide range of assistance is potentially available to businesses in all sectors, sizes and types for everything from business development, exporting, IT, marketing and promotion, investment in plant, premises or R&D.

If your business is planning a new development and you are looking into finding financial support, please contact the District Council for help.

For more information, contact business@midsussex.gov.uk.