

MAGIC WEEKEND

Friday 9th & Saturday 10th July, 2010

It's a weekend of top class entertainment with music for all tastes for an all-singing, all-dancing and all action packed weekend, topped with a fabulous firework finale. The legendary That'll Be the Day entertainment show, rocks into Victoria Park on Friday 9th July starting at 7.30pm. The nation's most successful touring rock 'n' roll variety show has a brand-new look this year featuring back-to-back classic gold hits from the 50's through to the 70's, mixed with all new comedy sketches that never fail to surprise and entertain audiences.

The gates to the park will open at 4.30pm with The Big Sing - children from local primary schools singing at 5:00pm, as you get settled and tuck into your picnics you will be entertained by the support band Soul Katz from 6.30pm. That'll be the Day will be on stage from 7.45pm finishing approximately at 10.30pm.

Then, clear your diaries for Saturday 10th July and join Aled Jones for an outstanding performance at the It's Magic open air picnic Summer Concert. Award-winning tenor Aled Jones will be joined by the gifted Classical Brit nominee and operatic sensation Faryl Smith. The music will be provided by the Sussex Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Mark Andrew James, with the evening ending with a proms style finale complete with a fantastic firework display. Gates open at 5.00pm with support band Sussex Stompers on stage from 6.00 pm - 7.00pm. The Sussex Symphony Orchestra will strike up at 7.30pm.
